

British Trust for Ornithology (BTO) Garden BirdWatch Quiz!

PRIZE!!

1) Name this bird...

Jill Pakenham

- Nuthatch
- Greenfinch
- Redwing
- Great Tit

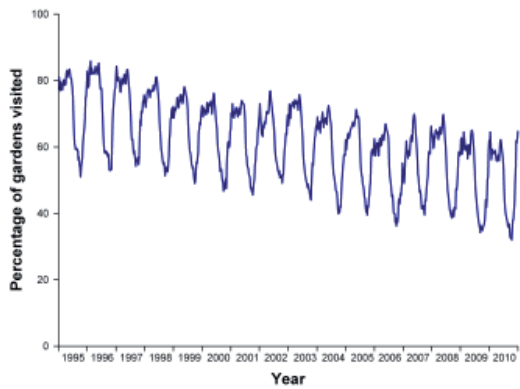

2) Which of these birds is normally too big to perch on a hanging bird feeder?

- Wood Pigeon
- Blue Tit
- Chaffinch
- Coal Tit

3) Which of these birds does NOT build its nest in a nest box?

- Robin
- Blue Tit
- Blackbird
- Great Tit

4) The Garden BirdWatch results shown below illustrate a well-publicised decline in which garden bird?

- Starling
- Sparrowhawk
- Blackbird
- Magpie

5) Name this bird...

John Harding

- Wood Pigeon
- Blackbird
- Song Thrush
- Bullfinch

6) Jays look different to other members of the crow family - but their main distinguishing feature is that they...

Are a metre tall Do not have wings Have a blue beak Are mostly pink

7) House Sparrows are sociable birds with distinct pecking orders. You can normally tell which male House Sparrow is dominant – but how?

Loudest call Biggest black 'bib' Largest beak Most agile on feeder

8) Name this bird...(by its tail!!)

www.grayimages.co.uk

Robin

Collared Dove

Wren

Green Woodpecker

9) Redwings and Fieldfares are migrant thrushes from Scandinavia and Iceland, but in which season are they most often seen in gardens?

Spring Summer Autumn Winter

10) I spend at least a few mins during most weeks watching the birds in my garden, and recognise my regular visitors - what should I do?

Do nothing

Get on with boring jobs

Draw the curtains

JOIN GARDEN BIRDWATCH!!!!!!

TIE BREAKER

In the recent BTO Roosting Survey, what was the maximum number of Wrens found roosting together during winter?

51

To let you know if you have won, to find out all of the answers, and to hear more about our exciting work, please write your details below:

Name:

Address:

Receive our monthly e-newsletter! Email: