

British Trust for Ornithology (BTO) Garden BirdWatch Quiz!

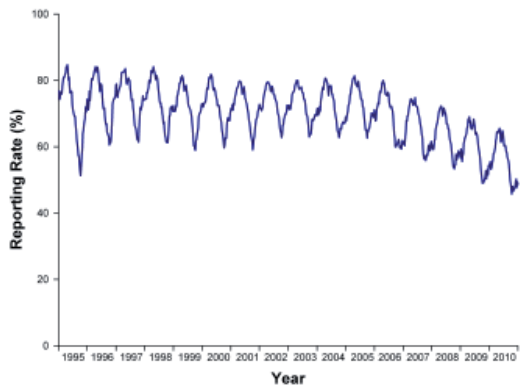

1) Name this bird...

Jill Pakenham

- Blue Tit
- Goldfinch
- Coal Tit
- Great Tit

2) BTO Garden BirdWatch results show that this once-common finch is in decline - but which one is it? (Note: 'Reporting Rate' is the percentage of gardens visited)

- Chaffinch
- Greenfinch
- Siskin
- Bullfinch

3) Wood Pigeons have been spotted much more frequently in gardens during recent years. What is the average life span of these portly birds?

- 3 years
- 4 years
- 5 years
- 6 years

4) House Sparrows are sociable birds with distinct pecking orders. You can normally tell which male House Sparrow is dominant - but how?

- Loudest call
- Biggest black 'bib'
- Largest beak
- Most agile on feeder

5) Name this bird...

John Harding

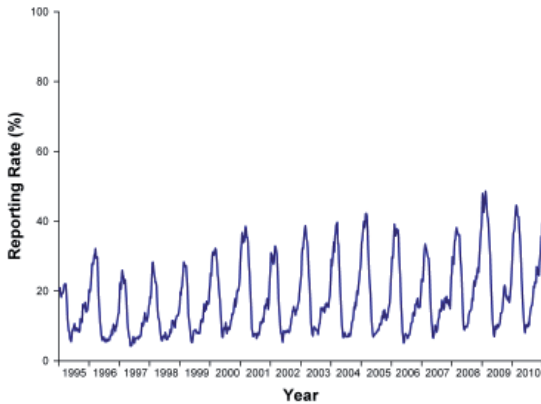

- Chaffinch
- Dunnock
- Mistle Thrush
- Bullfinch

6) Which of these species is NOT a 'red-list' species of high conservation concern?

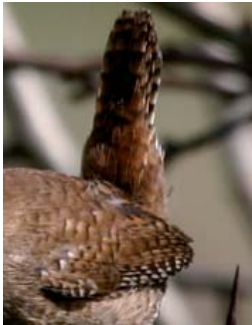

House Sparrow Starling Song Thrush Jay

7) BTO Garden BirdWatch results reveal an increasingly regular garden visitor, mainly during winter - but which one?

Long-tailed Tit
 Goldfinch
 Jackdaw
 Goldcrest

8) Name this bird...(by its tail!!)

www.grayimages.co.uk

Dunnock
 House Sparrow
 Wren
 Tree Sparrow

9) Blue Tits can lay more eggs than their own body weight in a single clutch! What is the average number of eggs in a Blue Tit clutch?

5 eggs 7 eggs
 9 eggs 11 eggs

10) I spend at least a few mins during most weeks watching the birds in my garden, and recognise my regular visitors - what should I do?

Do nothing
 Get on with boring jobs
 Draw the curtains
 JOIN GARDEN BIRDWATCH!!!!!!

TIE BREAKER

In the recent BTO Roosting Survey, what was the maximum number of Wrens found roosting together during winter?

51

To let you know if you have won, to find out all of the answers, and to hear more about our exciting work, please write your details below:

Name:

Address:

Receive our monthly e-newsletter! Email: